Dear Jack,

Would you please write to me and let me know if you received this letter, this pen, this cross and most of all this valentine.

The valentine that I'm sending to you is a symbol to let you know I understand first hand a person can do a thing that under normal conditions would not think of doing..... several days later would give anything if only it could be undone. The valentine was returned to me in yesterday's mail from my very favorite and most dear female friend because on January 2nd 1964, I did something over which I had no control. No one but myself knows I really couldn't help it but I couldn't, I couldn't, I couldn't... With you being a man you wouldn't know the almost unbearable pain a woman does go through on bringing a baby into this world. I have brought six into the world and am in the position to say MENTAL TORTURE is far greater. You must not worry Jack; I have written to Wade, Belli, Brown and Stone. I have warned them that should they decide on the death penalty for you the LORD is going to be greatly angered. I can not predict in

If somehow we could have all the wealth of this world, Which has been used for distruction of men,
To carry the words of the Lord over there, To the lands where distruction has been.

If through God we could have as many men who have given,
Their lives in those wars over there,
To carry the words of the Lord up above To the banks of shores everywhere.

If through prayer we could install in world leaders the faith Of Moses, of Isaiah, and Paul, We could land such an army on those distant shores,
Armed only with the power from God That could never fail to make a peace Which could stop distruction and sin.

We could make this world a beautiful place Like the home the Lord has on high, By teaching the Words of the Lord to the world, Through this army of Christian men.

Dear Jack Ruby, I hope that this letter may bring you some consolation & hope for a better life.

I do not pity you, because by your fateful action, you have gotten yourself in this dilemma, and all the pity in the world will never change it.

But I have a sincere compassion for you as a God's lost child, and maybe your trials will open the doors for better enlightenment and closer relation with your Creator.

My husband 83 years of age and a semi-invalid, and I were watching the television and witnessed the terrible tragedy that fell on our nation like a lightning, that fatal day.

We both cried with grief and shame, that in a wonderful country like ours, could be so much hate and malice, to the extent that He would kill an overstanding citizen.

like President Kennedy and others, who were lucky to inspire.

We ~~are~~ Both sincere, and loved our President, who has sacrificed his young life in the attempt to offer a sincere friendship, and new plant of progressive life for all the nation, not merely for our Society has much work ahead to weed out this hate & malice and self righteousness! Anyone capable of hate & malice is ~~a~~ sick mentally individual, and in some of our Southern locality, we ~~are~~ ~~truly~~ have great many folks with twisted ideas, about justice & love for true brotherhood of mankind!

When we read the Bible or go to church, where expectedly, we are told to love one another to be kind to one another to be just and let God do the judgement we often wonder if these folks are asleep while the minister preach! From the little attention they give, it seems they are wasting time & money, not alone offending God, by their false pretense of being Christians it says in the Bible "Do not take the work of God in vain" How can God help those who will not obey His commands and defy His Law?

There's ~~some~~ ~~can~~ ~~be~~ broken by changing but not gods! Because God is all in all! He fills all space, He is all power, all truth! all life! and love! Forgiving love because He gave His only perfect son to die for our sins.

Jesus was the man, Christ was the divine mind, spirit, the link which never departed from the Father God the Spirit!

Long as the Jewish race will deny Jesus Christ, as the one perfect Son of God and the Saviour of Humanity, so long will they live in darkness, and God will not be able to reach them, because they lost the divine guiding light that kept them in close contact with their God!

Jesus Christ is their only hope of glory!
He is the way, when we accept His faith and follow His example we shall find new life, new peace, new hope. This is the reason why?

4.

wish to you, to help you, to find yourself - to give you new hope!

The Jewish race are the first children of God, and they are still His perfect children, if they realize their mistakes.
Like all humanity they turned away from God, when they allowed themselves to be deceived by false gods, meaning "worshipping" the wrong things which has no place in God!

The Bible is still the Best book in the world, if we only read its meaning earnestly, and at least try our best to do it.

So the world was so spoiled, that many forgot God as their Father, and sinned on - they brought upon themselves sickness, death and trouble.

But because God is love forgiving love He want to save them, many He knew were innocently misguided in doing wrong, and there He want to save, so He caused Jesus Christ to be born, ordaining Him with His God - power to teach them new life, to give them new hope - to guide them out of darkness!

5
Believe me Mr. Rucy this is true, if you study Jesus Christ teaching and pray in faith, He will give you hope and lead you to have better life - inasmuch everything seems impossible for you. "With God all things are possible."

"I'm not writing this about Jewish law out of criticism but out of hope that they awake to Jesus Christ guidance and accept Him as their Saviour!
The Old Testament is of the past, the New Testament is of the new - "Be ye renewed in the spirit" Jesus said, not because He was inflated with His God given powers, but because He knew humanity was in need of fresh new ideas of their identity to God! They had to learn all over that life is eternal, and Man is created in the image and likeness of God!
Himself! But men must work with God and His Son to find it out!
God doesn't use force on His children 1374 they alone must be willing to accept His word & do as He says, in order to be in constant touch with Him.

All you need is to acknowledge to God that you have sinned, do it in all sincerity within your heart ask for forgiveness, and then go on living in hope, with Christ divine mind within you, to inspire and guide you. Place all your problems in God's hands! each day, pray, and then set your mind on some worthy plans for future.
Don't worry about what will happen to you, because whatever will happen will be for your own good. Resign yourself to meet any problem whether you like it or not, as long as it is good, that God is opening new life for you, because He loves you — maybe you will have to do some alone work for your foolish deed, just meet each problem with courage and faith that it happened for your good!

Be humble, start controlling your temperament and insecurity, remember you are a Son of God and an Heir to all His good! and believe that God has only good in store for you!

Leave your old life experiences behind you, you alone can change your life for the better, remember yesterday you were a child, you thought as a child - but today you're a man and you start thinking like a man, you will grow stronger and better each day.
Don't take God in vain and He will help you.

We can fool ourselves and others - but we can't fool God! He knows all, and seeing how true we are, shall we receive our reward.

would do unto yourself no Mr. Ruby, I do not approve of women stripping and enticing men to false excitement, not when I was young and pretty, and not even now that I'm old. I would earn money like that. I'd rather scrub floors for someone and keep my self respect, to be honest with yourself is not so easy, facing the worldly temptations but it pays great dividend in peace of mind. I don't have to look into myself in the face.

Don't go back to the old life you had.
You have good heart and good inten-

I do not condemn these women in strip-must keep changing for the better. We must not stick to the old concept of individualism. We must acknowledge that our government has a vital role in co-ordinating the efforts of the citizens and groups."

He said that the national council of the party which will meet in Ottawa in May will be asked by the Quebec group to make a special study of its structures. This was a direct allusion to the relationships which now exist between the provincial and the federal groups.

He announced that the QLF executive committee which met yesterday had decided to absorb the party's weekly paper La Réforme. It had been owned until now by a private group.

He also revealed that the next QLF convention which will meet in Montreal next Sept. 18-20 will have as its theme "The Youth of Quebec." Details would be announced later.

Jury Finds Man's Death Justified

A coroner's jury ruled today a 14-year-old boy committed "justifiable homicide" in killing his father to end the latter's attack on his family early Saturday.

Coroner Marcel Trahan concurred with the verdict. He said it was appropriate in view of "the fear that permeated the house as a result of the victim's sadistic, moronic tendencies."

Victim was Clément Dubreuil, 37.

Evidence at the hearing today showed Dubreuil was inflicting severe punishment on his family when his son decided to stop him. The boy took a .12-gauge shotgun from a closet and knocked his father down with a shot that creased his head.

Dubreuil got up again and went after the boy, who ran back to the closet and got a .303-calibre rifle. He shot his father four times in the chest.

Best Daughter

Dubreuil ended a 40-day sentence at Montreal Jail seven months ago for what was described as "a vicious beating" of his 13-year-old daughter.

His wife testified at the inquest today that she'd had him arrested a number of times for assault and for non-support. "My life with him was 17 years of hell," she said.

The boy said his earliest recollections were of being thrown up in the air and bounced off the ceiling by his father.

"Several times," he swore, "my father punched my nine-month-old sister in her crib to make her stop crying."

The jury rendered its verdict without leaving their seats to deliberate.

QPP sources state the method of investigation to date "is unsatisfactory to the QPP."

The RCMP, the Army Provost Corps and the Montreal Police Department's special anti-terrorist squad are also interested in the investigation.

Noranda police had said they were of the opinion the theft was "a prank."

The robbery was at the armory of the 9th Field Squadron, Royal Canadian Engineers. Nine automatic rifles, carbines and machine guns were taken.

They were recovered soon afterwards by a Noranda policeman, who found them hidden in a snowbank.

QPP spokesman said this afternoon the arms had been placed in dunnage bags before being hidden in the snow — "which means it was possible the thieves hid them there until they could come back for them later."

The youths were arrested less than an hour after the arms were found. Police also recovered a number of binoculars and compasses stolen from the armory.

Pinball Game Non-gambling

A pinball game should not be labelled as a gambling device, simply because it is difficult to win, the Quebec Court of Appeal ruled today.

Justices Paul Casey and Pierre Bédard maintained the appeal of Rita Toupin against a conviction of operating a gaming house at 503 St. Clément street, in September, 1963. The alleged offence took place in December, 1962. Mr. Justice Antoine Rivard, in a dissenting opinion, ruled that the appeal should be rejected.

The game in question, the judges said, was operated by a mechanical device.

Mr. Justice Casey said: "What the prosecution had to establish not merely as a probability but beyond a reasonable doubt was that in the operation of this particular machine the skill and experience of the player was for all practical purposes, of little or no importance."

"It was not sufficient to show that the machine was a difficult one on which to score, nor could the prosecution draw the desired conclusion from the fact that some experts had played the machine a relatively small number of times and had failed to win."

Police Lieutenant Steve Olynyk said at Miss Toupin's trial in Municipal Court the machine was a game of chance. He said that the electric trips and bumpers which sent the ball in

Dear Mr. Ruby:

Since you appear to be receiving several copies of the Bible, I would like to suggest that these be placed in the various tanks at the County Jail. I know that many times Bibles in the tanks are torn and have some of the pages missing. This could be a valuable contribution to the prisoners in the months to come.

If I can assist in any way as you continue to discover new and remarkable experiences through the reading of a new version of the Holy Bible I would be pleased to do so. It is indeed remarkable how God has manifested Himself through Jesus Christ. We believe that this God-like-man best reveals the nature of God to mankind. May the Spirit lead you as you make some remarkable discoveries in faith.

The sad answer to that is "no, never". Never again will anyone see his smiling face.
Yet in the hearts of people throughout the world, he lives on. The world shall never forget the late President Kennedy. I know I shall never forget him.
I would of liked to met him but I never did.
None of what went on,
on that black Friday of November twenty-second of the year nineteen hundred sixty-three, I am more determine to become a California Highway Patrolman than ever.

I hope that President Johnson will have better luck than the late President Kennedy.

I wish you all the luck that can be given. I truly do hope that you will be a free man soon.

Maybe what you did was wrong in God's eyes, but in the people's eyes it was right. At least that's the way I feel, Mr. Ruby.

I also feel sorry for that policeman that Mr. Oswald shot and killed.

All this, because of a man full of hate.

I remain,

Dear Mr. Ruby:

Do you know that the Bible says that the Jews are God's Chosen people. In fact that He comfort to you no matter what other way - I do pray that God may create in you and cause you to repent of your sins Confess Christ as your Saviour. He came to save sinners and no matter how many your sins are Christ can & will forgive them but we must confess and acknowledge that Christ died on the cross to save sinners just like you and me.

I am a protestant and I have a number of Jewish friends.
Do read your Bible and look up these references. They will help you know the truth.

I pray for you and trust God to save you.

Dear Uncle Jack,

Sorry I haven't written sooner, But I wanted to write when it would do the best for you spirit wise. Florence and the baby are fine and everything seems to be going along fairly well.

Flo's dance studio is growing very well and I am working as a production assistant on the "Perry Mason Show" for CBS. Rondine is two and a half now and growing like a weed. We've enclosed a picture of her so look good in the envelope. she's very small.

I spent quite a bit of time with Earl when he was out here in Los Angeles. He was really putting in long hours and hard work. I don't know if he remembered to tell you, but your barber friends out here want to be remembered to you.

With all that has been going on and written and said in the last few months, a lot of memories have been brought back. There sure is a lot of water under the bridge since Independence

By Mom's letters that she hasn't gotten over Dad's passing. I have been trying to get her to move out here, but she won't give in. With the kind of winters back there you would think she was an eskimo. One of these days she'll give in.

Hollywood is still here and I am in the middle of the rat race. Once your in the film industry you stick with it and try to come across the one deal for a picture or television series that will put you on your way. Florence says if I had a nickel for every hour I've spent promoting a deal we could retire. I probably don't need to tell you that L.A. is growing by leaps and bounds and soon the city limits will be the outskirts of San Francisco.

I don't think Melvin Belli will remember me, but we met when he was on a television show on CBS Los Angeles called "Viewpoint" with John Hart. I worked that show at the time.

Ella and Jenny asked to be remembered to you. Of course they hope that everything will turn out all right. Well that's about all from the West at present. Keep your head about you and think before you answer. I'm sure everything will turn out all right if you work with Belli and keep your spirits up. Hope to see you out here soon, I know a great steak house and the dinner is on us.

Love

A letter to Jack Ruby in Dallas Texas

Jack when you were on the air many nights I could not help but think you were talking to me. Like a young man.

If there is any one who will write a story about a great man then I could understand you because you know how I think you were talking to me because I think you had heard or heard about the letter I wrote to the Dallas Police I decided the letter the story of why a great man was killed.

I did not sign my name to the letter Jack had written at the time I had written the letter to him I had never before written to Bill but when you spoke I did not surprise him. <sup>Evening</sup> I was killed & I regret that I was in a scandal and I had indicated that and I had written a story I had would also say in the story. If the F.B.I. had not told me I should have told him that I knew the facts about the killing. I would have told them just what they had come over here asking about the dogs & later

1365

I have been thinking of you a great deal lately and wondering how you are getting on. I hope you are well and happy. I have been very busy lately, but I have managed to find some time to write you. I have been thinking of you a great deal lately and wondering how you are getting on. I hope you are well and happy. I have been very busy lately, but I have managed to find some time to write you.

The way of the world of the time I guess you know better than I do. I am sure of your people. I want to tell you that when the president's term was being planned Frank S. had been planned also only John F. didn't want to do it. When I heard in that the Rep. not to vote for Frank S. or it was the capital right told. And when he said he's not going to name him. I knew that your leader had said that who made Frank S. Segregate the Sen. House show at the last minute. Who made him

Robert K. just up and talk for the Civil Rights in being your leader. The same that friend I told me never brought him back to your old country. It's the same people with Mr Jack Ruby. You are arrested all over and you keep killing killing killing and if my other letter made you any Ruby I hope this one will bring you some. Bath

Dear Jack:

For your sake, stop making statements for television newsmen. Your statements are edited to make you look crude, or you are without a doubt the biggest ass of the century. Your statement on Hate Groups is an excellent example. How can you, a person in a blind rage of hate who deliberately gunned down a handcuffed man, lambast any hate group? If it is permissible for you to write, I would appreciate a reply.

I personally feel no malice toward you and will take this opportunity to wish you good luck.

De mi mayor consideración:

Por los preparativos que se hacen ,para procesar a

Le voy a decir pocas palabras:

1. Era muy querido el Presidente Kennedy no solo en EE UU, sino en toda la orbe.
2. Somos muchos los asesinos potenciales de Oswald, examine su conciencia y verá que es uno de ellos.
3. Para nosotros, acá, no existen dudas de que Oswald era el asesino de Kennedy y de Tippit, sobran pruebas y son abrumadoras, y el haberlo negado Oswald no cambia el aserto. El alemán que mató al niño de

Why doesn't your celebrated Attorney call in 12 of the shippers who work in your vice-cous to serve on your jury? This would insure you the verdict you want and would also be in keeping with the high "Code

You should get the same type of "justice"
you gave Lee Oswald.
It would surprise no

The state does not

One Way of Looking at Everyday Manners and Morals

The forthcoming trial of Jack Ruby in Dallas is likely to raise a lot of sticky questions. It might, for example, prove nearly impossible to impanel a jury of people without preconceptions about his guilt or innocence. Most of us watched the killing on television and in our discussions most likely came to one conclusion or another. The traditional screening of prospective jurors may take a long time.

The attorneys for Ruby have already implied that "temporary insanity" will be his defense. In a forthcoming book, "The Right To Life" (Holt, Rinehart and Winston), Norman St. John-Stevens makes an interesting distinction between British and American jurisprudence in treating the insanity defense. English law distinguishes "insanity" caused by external causes from that due to internal causes and usually accepts only the latter as a legitimate defense. In other words, English courts believe that only a genuine emotional disturbance "justifies" antisocial behavior. (A man who flies into a rage because of external circumstances has himself to blame and should face the consequences.) Under the circumstances, Ruby can be glad he's being tried in Dallas and not in London. If and when he is acquitted of the killing (and from here that seems probable), Ruby's career should flourish: guest appearances on TV programs (Will our mystery guest please sign in?), memoirs for magazines engaged in frantic circulation battles, perhaps even an anthology of his favorite patriotic speeches. It should far surpass the vaudeville appearances made by the Lindbergh kidnaping principals after Bruno Hauptmann had been condemned to the electric chair.

Maybe Jack could get Madame Nhu to team up with him. They ought to get along fine.

Dallas, Texas

1355

Jack Ruby -
You recently stated in a published article that your "good friend" District Attorney Henry Wade discussed Oswald's guilt with you.

Is it the Honorable District Attorney's policy to discuss a case with all local pimps, or only the big time vice barons who are respected at City Hall because of their big "pay offs"?

Monday January 17, 1964

Dear Mr. Ruby,

I am a 20 yr. old junior at Michigan State. I am also a strong supporter of Barry Goldwater and the conservative form of Politics. I hoped that Mr. Goldwater would have soundly defeated John Kennedy in the election. This is because I disagreed with Mr. Kennedy's policies. As a man he was a great one. He was one idealist in a world of politicians. He only sought to better everyone's place in life. He was unselfish and a friend to anyone who needed a friend.

Right now you are being tried for murder. People seem to conform to public opinion rather than acting from their hearts. In my heart I find no guilt with you. I have seen you on television and was extremely impressed with your sincerity. People need only turn to the Bible to see how St. Peter displayed wrath at the soldiers who imprisoned Christ. There is such a thing as "righteous indignation". Your was a selfless act. You had everything to lose and nothing to gain. You stood, not as a coward, but right out in front of the world. You took a blotch of evil out of the world.

I am a Catholic and as one can never condone murder. However no one is perfect.

Should I have known there as the time of Christ's murder & know I could not have stood by. Should anyone have known anything in my family & know I could not. Please understand my situation. Should I have been in your shoes & could say what I would have done. In my heart I, as well as millions of others, stand on your act, but Dallas deserves for your life alone. I just wanted to write to let you know in my way that you are not alone. I admire your courage and I admire your sincerity. Impersonality is a degrading plea. It tarnishes what was right in your heart.

You will not die. God will not allow it. He places the value of a good life above the price of a city or the money we must project overseas. You are not being judged by 12 people. You have already been judged by God and his power is greater than any court. My prayers have been with you and will continue to be so. You will get a jail term, but not a long one. Place your hope in God knowing what was in your heart that Sunday. God is a friend who will never leave your side. There is also a man in heaven named Kennedy who won't let you down. God won't let you die because the world is a better place to live in with you in it. I just want you to know that. I hope that I may grow to friendhood with a heart as big as yours. So see you later in Jack Ruby, please be MR. Ruby. Your heart's got class.

Sincerely, yours

Dear Mrs. Ruby

You must know that there are many people like myself - I am not many - who have only the best of wishes for you; wishes for many good days ahead for you, which you may enjoy and forget that fateful day in November. I saw the incident as it happened. I can understand exactly how you felt. I saw you on television recently, when you said .... "perhaps it was because you loved your city .... etc."

Also you loved that fine young man who was giving us his all every day to make our country fine &
secure. (JFK)

I find it difficult to put into words what I feel about you. I shouldn't say you did the right thing; you know that <sup>too</sup> but at the moment you were too involved in your personal shock, sense of loss & the overwhelming tragedy to think clearly. Which one of us would have done better?

I wish I could do something to help you.
If I can, please tell me.

Most of all, please remember you have many understanding friends throughout the country - the women - who wish you well

Peace of mind to you

I am a Christian concerned with all people being saved from sin. I have read with much interest the accounts of your life before and since you committed murder. There is no doubt you committed the murder but I believe there is still hope for you in Jesus Christ. I have noticed the account of your reading the Bible and you saying you have been real interested and maybe a changed man. There is no other hope after death other than in the Lord Jesus Christ. Read Romans 3:23 all have sinned and without Jesus Christ we will be lost eternally. Read Revelations 3:20. Jesus is knocking at our hearts and we must let him come in. We must believe in him. Read Romans 6:23 the wages of sin is death but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. We must accept that. Read Romans 10:9-10-11 and believe, also Read Acts 16.

According to the Bible you can be saved if you will.
Confess that you have sinned and believe. That is why Jesus came to the earth to save sinners like you and me.
You could yet have a good and useful life for the Lord. Your testimony for the Lord could be a blessing to many people. I will be praying for you and others like you. I am not excusing you for the thing you did I am only anxious about your soul salvation

Mr. Jack Ruby!

I am a keen autograph collector, and as such I would very much have appreciated having a little greeting from you.

Of course I fully took part in those tragic events at Dallas during the late November days - in the newspapers and over the radio and TV. And I have come to ask myself a question - a question, which I do hope to be answered by you personally: What do you think and feel about those November events now afterwards?

When I at present ask you if you will kindly send me little personal greeting, it is

Mr. Jack Ruby,

% Dallas Police Station,

Dallas,

Texas

1348 U.S.A.

in order to have this one as a dear souvenir and memory from you.

In expressing all my best wishes to you for the days to come, I am,

Yours sincerely
TORE JOHANSEN,
